DESCRIPTION

In this four-week elective, the student acts as an intern and takes charge of patients consistent with his or her ability to accept responsibility. This is an opportunity to learn newborn resuscitation, endotracheal intubation, respiratory care techniques, and all phases of acute and critical medicine of the newborn. It is a recommended clerkship for the senior student training in pediatrics, obstetrics/gynecology, surgery, and anesthesiology.

GRADING

Medical Students are graded using the following scale: Honors (H), Pass (P), Fail (F) and Incomplete (I). For further information, please review the Grading Policy.

The standard UCI elective evaluation form will be used to determine the final grade of a student. The students will be graded on a three-part system Honors/Pass/Fail. Midcourse feedback will be provided to the students by the attendings. Each student will be observed and evaluated by: 1) Attending neonatology faculty, 2) Neonatal fellows, 3) Neonatal nurse practitioners, 4) NICU team members. If the student fails the elective, a grade of "F" will be permanently recorded on his/her transcript. The student can repeat the course for a second grade; however, the "F" will not be removed from the transcript.

You have 30 days from the date of the grade to appeal any aspect of this grade. Please contact your Clerkship/course Director should you have any questions.

Requirements for “Pass”:

To receive a grade of Pass, students must demonstrate successful performance in all the following areas:

- Knowledge
- Patient Care
- Practice-Based Learning
